SUNDAY WORSHIP NOV 12 @ 10-11 AM

This retreat will renew your soul and deepen your relationship with Christ, as we learn about faith formation in the ancient and modern church.

The retreat begins Saturday morning at 8:45.

We will break for lunch at noon, and resume from 1pm - 4 pm

Jerry Sittser will also preach at FPC Sunday morning at the 10 am service

Jerry Sittser, Senior Fellow of Whitworth University's Office of Church Engagement & Professor of Theology, specializes in the History of Christianity, Christian Spirituality, and Religion in American Public Life. He founded the Certification for Ministry program, the Masters of Arts in Theology program, and the Academy of Christian discipleship. He has also written eight books. He is currently doing research on the history of the "catechumenate," which refers to how the church has trained people in the faith over the past 2,000 years. He enjoys music, literature, hiking, woodworking, and he attends the Oregon Shakespeare Festival every year with his family. Married to Patricia since 2010, he has three married children, two married step-children, and two grandchildren.
